

A) Define the underlined expressions in English.(10)

To bow to a superior force makes us feel impotent and cowardly for not having had the strength or courage to resist. Worse, it makes us resentful and vengeful.

That escapade sent him to seek his fortune in London. She was to be betrothed to the son of a neighboring wool-stapler.

Her genius was for fiction and lusted to feed abundantly upon the lives of men and women.

I think we are on the track of a lost novelist, a suppressed poet, of some mute and inglorious Jane Austen, some Emily Bronte who dashed her brains out on the moor or mopped and mowed about the highways crazed with the torture that her gift had put her to.

Saddened by the event, the scientists augmented their safety precautions.

It would be three weeks before the astronauts could parade through adulatory crowds.

The rocket that first carried men to the moon is now obsolete.

Caesar felt ambivalent about attacking his former friend. He accomplished many reforms. He was the victim of the perennial problem of successful people.

We must have a delight or pleasure of some species or other in contemplating objects of this kind.

We are more deeply affected by the violent death of one, and the ruin of the great cause he adhered to, than with the deserved triumph and uninterrupted prosperity of the other.

It isn't just they who have given up to rectify traditional vexation.

After hectoring my wife throughout the first reel, I finally prevailed upon her to admit that it was off, and very annoying.

If we had supposed the movie would run right through the blurred image, someone surely would have summoned up the purposive indignation to get up out of his seat and file his complaint.

When the grievance is collective, in my behalf-that it is only when the provocation is at a very special key, whose vibrations touch simultaneously a complexus of nerves.

My blood gets hot, my brow wet, I become unbearably an unconscionably sarcastic and bellicose.

B) Translate the following sentences into Farsi. (10)

1-I'm convinced that we have a degree of delight, and that no small one, in the real misfortunes and pains of others.

2-She gave it a wobble, then headed back for the warmth of the cab and thankfully shut the door on the night.

3-Who shall measure the heat and violence of the poet's heart when caught and tangled in a woman's body?

4-Some historians see him as power-hungry villain. Others feel he was a reformer whose brutal assassination almost destroyed Rome.

5-"You too, Brutus" was his expression of anguish as he submitted to the weapons of his murderers.

6-Terror is a passion which always produces delight when it does not press too close.

7-This is not an unmixed delight, but blended with no small uneasiness.

8-Although this arrangement was not a panacea, it was a relief from endless winter.

9-I was waiting that the entire house would explode into catcalls and foot stamping, calling dramatic attention to the irksome distortion.

10-The tendency to passive compliance, to a heedless endurance, is something to keep one's eyes on-in sharp focus.

Good Luck